ARTICLE 1 PURPOSE OF THE AGREEMENT

1.01 The purpose of this agreement is to establish and maintain an orderly collective bargaining relationship between the University and its employees represented by the Union, to establish and maintain equitable working conditions, to foster and promote good relations between the University and the employees and to facilitate the effective and equitable settlement of problems that may arise.

ARTICLE 2 UNION RECOGNITION

2.01 The University recognizes the Union as being the only official representative and the sole authorized agent, for negotiation or other purposes, for the employees covered by this collective agreement.

2.02 In order to be valid, all agreements subsequent to the signature of the present agreement among one, several or all employees and the University (Human Resources), that modify the present agreement, must receive the written approval of the Union.

2.03 All employees who are members in good standing of the Union at the time of the signing of this agreement, and all those who become members thereafter, must maintain their membership in the Union for the duration of this agreement as a condition of continued employment, subject to the provisions of clause 2.05.

2.04 All new employees must become members in good standing of the Union by signing a membership card and by paying the entry fee determined by the Union.

2.05 The University is not bound to dismiss or transfer an employee because the Union has expelled them from their ranks.

ARTICLE 3 MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

3.01 The University has and retains all its rights and privileges in effectively managing and administering its activities in conformity with the provisions of this agreement.

3.02 The University will treat its employees with justice.

ARTICLE 4 DISCRIMINATION AND SEXUAL HARASSMENT

4.01 The parties agree that the rights and obligations stipulated in the Quebec Charter of Human Rights and Freedoms are an integral part of this collective agreement.

ARTICLE 5 SCOPE OF APPLICATION

5.01 This collective agreement applies to all employees covered by the certification issued under the Labour Code who are:

"All employees occupying non-academic positions (full-time, part-time and sessional) except employees occupying positions classified as "M", casuals, student casuals and those already represented by a certified association".

5.02 If, during the lifetime of this agreement, the University is of the opinion that an employee should be excluded from the bargaining unit because they are no longer an employee within the meaning of the Labour Code, and if this employee continues to perform most of the tasks which they performed in their previous position, the University must then proceed according to the provisions of article 39 of the Quebec Labour Code. The burden of proof rests with the University.

In such a case, the provisions of the collective agreement continue to apply to the employee until such time as the Commission des relations du travail hands down a final decision.

5.03 The University will advise the Union in writing, within one (1) month, of the promotion or transfer of an employee to a position excluded from the bargaining unit, indicating the title of the position to which the employee has been promoted or transferred and the place of work.

5.04 Persons excluded from the bargaining unit will not perform work normally done by the different categories of employees covered by the bargaining unit, or any other work which by its nature could be included in the bargaining unit, except in the following cases:

- emergencies, volume of work, temporary lack of personnel
- training of employees
- practical training for students
- work performed by persons employed by the University covered or not by another bargaining unit normally performing the same kind of work, provided the University respects the terms of the certificate of accreditation
- use of casuals in accordance with Appendix 5.

ARTICLE 6 DUES CHECK-OFF

6.01 The University will withhold from the pay of each employee, included in the bargaining unit, the dues fixed by the Union, and remit the sum thus withheld to the Union Treasurer within ten (10) calendar days of the end of the month.

6.02 In case of omission in good faith in the check-off due to administrative or technical error, the University agrees, upon written notice from the Union to this effect, to check off the non-remitted amount within fifteen (15) days of the said notice.

6.03 The University will identify the amount withheld for Union dues on the T4 and Relevé 1 forms of each employee.

6.04 In addition to the deduction of Union dues, the University will provide the Union with a list on a monthly basis of each employee from whom union dues have been withheld as follows:

Name, McGill person ID, Amounts paid, Pay type. The list will be provided in a workable spread sheet format.

ARTICLE 7 GENERAL PROVISIONS

7.01 The University will provide the Union on a monthly basis with the following lists (electronic medium):

- (a) The name of newly hired staff;
- (b) The name of each employee terminated and the date of termination;
- (c) All employees on Placement Transition;
- (d) All employees in the Bargaining Unit:

Name, Pay No., Dept. Code, Dept. Name, Building Code, Building Name, PED Number, Level, Status, Start Date and Phone Number at work. It is understood that phone numbers are not actively maintained and may not be accurate;

- (e) All staff on leave;
- (f) All employees who have left the Bargaining Unit and reason thereof.

7.02 Twice a year, the University will provide the Union with salary information on all members of the bargaining unit.

7.03 The University will forward to the Union a copy of any notice or directive from Human Resources addressed to a group of employees or to all employees covered by this collective agreement.

7.04 The Union may communicate with its members through campus mail and through electronic mail on the same basis as other employee associations.

7.05 The University will supply suitable office space for the exclusive use of the Union on the downtown campus and at Macdonald campus, free of charge. The Union shall have the use of telephone and fax lines, the cost of these services to be borne by the Union.

7.06 External advisors of the Union shall have access to University premises in order to meet with the Union or University representatives. Meetings with Union representatives during working hours are subject to prior arrangements being made with the respective supervisor. Meetings with the University representatives must be arranged in advance with Human Resources or delegate.

7.07 The Union may post notices of meetings or other documents concerning Union business in locations agreed upon between the parties. These notices or documents must be clearly identified as being issued by the Union. The Union may distribute any information it judges necessary to employees covered by this collective agreement, provided that the Union is clearly identified as the source of the information.

7.08 No employee will be the object of discrimination by the University as a result of their speaking, writing or taking legal action in serving the interests of the Union.

7.09 The University shall hold any employee harmless of civil responsibility for any action or omission in respect of which the University could be held vicariously liable as an employer, except in cases of gross negligence or an action not related to the employee's duties.

7.10 The University will provide the Union free of charge (room only) with suitable rooms for the purpose of holding General meetings, if such room is available at time selected by Union.

7.11 In accordance with article 41 (Technological Change), the University will advise the Union in writing at least one (1) month in advance of any technological or technical improvements or organisational and operational changes likely to affect the working conditions of the employees concerned. In certain instances, the parties may agree to a shorter notice period.

The committee members must advise their immediate supervisor excluded from the bargaining unit, in writing, at least five (5) working days before the date of the meeting with a copy to Human Resources (Employee Relations). The request for liberation must stipulate the date and duration of the absence.

ARTICLE 10 GRIEVANCE AND DISAGREEMENT PROCEDURE

10.01 Scope of Procedure:

It is the firm desire of the parties to resolve all grievances or disagreements equitably and as rapidly as possible.

10.02 Steps in the procedure:

(a) Step 1

- (i) Any employee with a problem concerning the application of their working conditions which could give rise to a grievance (step 2) or disagreement shall discuss it with their immediate supervisor to resolve it if possible. A Union representative may be present if the employee so desires, provided the immediate supervisor is advised of this and of the nature of the problem in advance of the discussion.

If the problem is not resolved in that informal discussion, or if either party prefers a formal meeting to discuss the problem, a formal meeting shall be requested, in writing (including email), and held consistent with (ii) below. The request in writing may be made by the supervisor, the employee or the employee's Union representative.

- (ii) The employee may be accompanied by one (1) or two (2) Union representatives if they so desire, so that both parties have an equal number of representatives at the meeting. If this meeting between the employee and their immediate supervisor does not succeed in resolving the problem, or if an employee is unable to discuss the matter with their immediate supervisor, the Union may proceed at step 2 of the Grievance and Disagreement Procedure.

- (iii) The supervisor shall follow up with the employee, in writing, addressing the problem of the employee, within a maximal delay of fifteen (15) working days from the initial discussion, or from when the formal request for a meeting was submitted. The parties may mutually agree to extend the timelines herein.

(b) Step 2

If the problem or disagreement is not resolved at step 1, or if the supervisor does not follow up with the employee, in writing, within fifteen (15) working days, the Union shall have the right to submit the grievance or disagreement in writing to Employee Relations within thirty (30) working days from when the meeting at step 1 took place. Employee Relations shall render a written decision within fifteen (15) working days of receipt of the grievance or disagreement.

In the event that the supervisor is unable or does not hold the meeting within fifteen (15) working days the Union shall have the right to submit the grievance or disagreement in writing to Employee Relations within forty-five (45) working days from when the initial discussion took place (in the event that no meeting is requested), or from when the request for a meeting was submitted. Employee Relations shall render a written decision within fifteen (15) working days of receipt of the grievance or disagreement.

(c) Step 3 (Labour Relations Committee)

If the grievance or disagreement is not resolved with the decision of Employee Relations, or if Employee Relations fails to render a decision within fifteen (15) working days, the grievance or disagreement shall be placed on the agenda of the Labour Relations Committee on at least two (2) separate occasions by the Union or the University.

After the second Labour Relations Committee meeting where the grievance or disagreement will have been placed on the agenda, and if no mutually satisfactory solution has been found, the Union or the University can deliver to the other party a written request for arbitration. The request shall include a copy of the grievance or disagreement.

(d) However, if both parties agree, the discussions to find a mutually satisfactory solution to the grievance or disagreement may be continued, or a grievance could proceed directly to arbitration after step 2.

(e) A grievance concerning any of the following subjects shall be filed in writing, directly to Human Resources (Employee Relations) at step 2:

- Determination and payment of salaries or benefits from group insurance and pension plans
- Educational assistance
- Parental leaves
- Position match
- Short-term disability
- Unpaid leaves of absence

A grievance concerning any of the following subjects may be filed at Step 2:

- Employment security
- Exercise of Union rights
- Selection of personnel and pertinence of other qualifying skills and abilities
- Suspension or dismissal
- Policy grievance related to the interpretation of the collective agreement

(f) All time limits mentioned in this article are mandatory unless otherwise agreed in writing. Failure to comply with this renders a grievance or disagreement null, void and illegal.

However, a rejected grievance or disagreement shall not, by this fact alone, be considered as an acceptance by the Union of the University's position and cannot be used as a precedent.

- (g) Any agreement between the parties made during the grievance and disagreement procedure, which resolves the grievance or disagreement in question, must be the subject of a document signed by the parties.

10.03 Arbitration Procedures:

The parties agree to appear before a single arbitrator mutually agreed upon by the University and the Union. If the parties cannot agree on the choice of an arbitrator, one or other of the parties may request that the arbitrator be designated by the Minister of Labour in conformity with the provisions of the Quebec Labour Code.

10.04 Arbitrator's Jurisdiction

- (a) In rendering a decision on any grievance or disagreement, the arbitrator must consider the letter and the spirit of the collective agreement. In the case of disagreements on working conditions not covered by this collective agreement, the arbitrator must consider the principles of justice and fairness as well as the general labour relations' policies which emerge from this collective agreement.
- (b) In rendering a decision on a grievance, the arbitrator may not remove, amend, or modify anything contained in this collective agreement.
- (c) In rendering a decision on a grievance concerning disciplinary measures, the arbitrator may confirm, modify or annul the disciplinary measure. The arbitrator may substitute for such a decision, a measure which, given the circumstances of the case, the arbitrator considers reasonable and just.
- (d) The arbitrator may render any other decision which is fair and just under the circumstances, as well as determine, if applicable, the amount of compensation or damages to which an employee or the Union may be entitled, including the payment of interest in accordance with the provisions of the Labour Code.
- (e) In the case of a resignation, the arbitrator may evaluate the circumstances surrounding the resignation of any employee and the value of said resignation.

10.05 No confession signed by an employee may be used against the employee during arbitration unless:

- (a) the confession was signed in the presence of a representative of the Union; or

- (b) the confession was signed without a Union representative being present, but was not retracted in writing by the employee within seven (7) days of the signature of the confession.

10.06 In all cases of dismissal, whether for administrative or disciplinary reasons, the burden of proof rests with the University.

10.07 The arbitrator's fees and expenses shall be borne by the parties on an equal basis.

ARTICLE 11 ADMINISTRATIVE DISMISSAL

11.01 Any employee called to a meeting by the University for an administrative dismissal has the right to be accompanied by two (2) Union representatives.

11.02 Any administrative dismissal must be communicated to the employee in writing, indicating the reasons, with a copy to the Union.

11.03 No employee shall suffer termination for administrative reasons, nor a decrease in salary or salary range for administrative reasons, without cause, for which the University has the burden of proof.

11.04 Any administrative dismissal may be submitted to arbitration.

ARTICLE 12 DISCIPLINARY MEASURES

12.01 Written reprimand, suspension, or dismissal are the disciplinary measures that may be applied according to the seriousness or frequency of the implied infraction.

12.02 The University shall take no disciplinary action without just and sufficient cause, for which the University has the burden of proof.

12.03 Any employee called to a meeting by the University for disciplinary reasons has the right to be accompanied by two (2) Union representatives. Prior to the meeting, the employee will be informed of the general nature of the problem for which the employee is called to a meeting.

12.04 The University must notify the employee who is subject to the disciplinary measure in writing, with a copy to the Union, within fifteen (15) working days of the infraction or the University's knowledge of the action that caused the disciplinary measure to be taken.

12.05 If the University invokes knowledge after the fact, the University shall have the burden of proving that it acquired the knowledge of the infraction after its occurrence.

- 12.06 Any disciplinary measure must be communicated to the employee in writing, with a copy to the Union. This notification must state what action is to be taken by the University, the reasons for the action and the specific facts on which it is based.
- 12.07 Only notices of disciplinary measures of which the employee has been informed, in writing, may be placed in the employee's file in Human Resources or submitted as evidence against the employee during arbitration.
- 12.08 The employee's official file is that file held in Human Resources.
- 12.09 Any disciplinary measure not taken in accordance with the above clauses is null and void.
- 12.10 All information concerning a disciplinary measure must be removed from an employee's file if, during the following twelve (12) months, no other record of a disciplinary infraction of the same type is placed in the file.
- 12.11 A disciplinary measure that has been rescinded as a result of a decision in favour of the employee shall be withdrawn from the file.
- 12.12 A period of suspension shall not interrupt an employee's seniority.
- 12.13 Except in the case of a serious infraction, a suspension shall not take effect until two (2) working days following receipt of the disciplinary notice by the employee.
- 12.14 The University shall have the burden of proving that the employee has received the notification. The procedures to be followed are:
- (a) The employee may acknowledge receipt of the disciplinary notice, by signing the duplicate copy of the notice indicating acknowledgement of receipt and the date. Nothing written on the notice by the employee may be taken to mean more than simple acknowledgement of receipt.
 - (b) If an employee fails to acknowledge receipt as provided in clause 12.14 (a), a copy of the disciplinary notice will be sent to the employee, by registered mail or by courier.
- 12.15 The University will agree to meet the Union representatives who accompany the employee, so both parties have equal numbers of representatives at the meeting.

ARTICLE 13 JOB POSTINGS AND SELECTION OF PERSONNEL

13.01 Appointments to vacant or newly created positions shall be made from among internal candidates on the basis of their skills, ability, qualifications and seniority. In cases of equal skills, ability and qualifications, seniority shall prevail.

13.02 If a grievance arises contesting the candidate selected or the pertinence of the other qualifying skills and abilities, stipulated in clause 13.06, the burden of proof rests with the University.

13.03 If the University decides to fill a position that is vacant, the position will be posted within twenty (20) working days from the date the position became vacant for eight (8) working days. If the position is to be abolished or the posting deferred, the University will inform the Union of its decision within the above-mentioned delay.

In such a case, the deferral will be for a maximum of six (6) months. At the end of the six (6) months period, the position will have to be posted or a second deferral decision made. If no such decision is made the position will then be considered cancelled.

In case of a second deferral, this final deferral will be for a maximum of six (6) months. At the end of the six (6) months period, the position will have to be posted or cancelled. For the purpose of interpretation of the collective agreement, a cancelled position is deemed to be abolished.

13.04 The University may fill a vacant or newly created position, without posting, by appointing:

- (a) an employee working in the department in which the position vacancy occurs, subject to the criteria stipulated in clauses 13.01 and 13.02; or
- (b) an employee with employment security who has been given notice of abolition or has been placed on relocation.

Such employees must be granted first priority in filling vacant positions.

13.05 An employee in the department in which the position vacancy occurs, who has been notified of the vacancy and does not apply, will not be granted first priority when the position vacancy is posted in the bargaining unit.

13.06 Information on the posting will include:

- position title
- position reference number
- salary scale
- work schedule
- summary of responsibilities
- minimum education or equivalent(*) and experience requirements

- other qualifications, skills and/or abilities which are pertinent to the job responsibilities, excluding those typically acquired during short term minimal training or on the job instruction
- supervisor's title
- posting date and expiry date of the posting
- the end date of the position if it is a position with an end date

(*) Parties agree to engage, after the signing of the collective agreement, into Problem Solving Discussions on the notion of "equivalent" in article 13.06.

13.07 Employees who wish to be considered for a vacant or newly created position must apply by submitting an application form and curriculum vitae to the office indicated on the posting notice, during the posting period.

An employee who is absent from work may apply for a posted position through the Union.

includes, on the one hand, a contribution period by the employee and, on the other hand, a leave.

Definitions

For the purposes of this article, the following definitions apply:

"Period of contract" is the total time during which the salary is deferred, including the period of deferral and the period of leave, but excluding any period of suspension provided for in this article.

a written agreement signed by the employee and the University specifying the details of the deferred salary leave, a copy of which is appended to this collective agreement at Appendix 2.

"Amount of deferred remuneration" is that part of the actual remuneration that the University withholds each year on the employee's behalf, in accordance with clause 34.09, increased from time to time, by the interest earned thereon, less all amounts paid under the terms of the deferred salary leave contract.

"Period of leave"

is the number of months during which the employee is on leave in accordance with the contract.

34.03

The contract period can be of two (2), three (3), four (4) or five (5) years' duration.

34.04 During the period of the contract, the employee is not eligible for the Unpaid Leave of Absence provided for in article 33.

34.05 The length of the period of leave can be either six (6), nine (9) or twelve (12) months' duration.

34.06 Conditions

- (a) In order to benefit from a deferred salary leave, an employee must have employment security.
- (b) Employees who wish to avail themselves of a deferred salary leave must submit a written request to their Department Head with a copy to Human Resources (Pensions and Benefits) at least four (4) weeks prior to the expected date on which the contract period would begin. This request must indicate the beginning and end dates of the period of deferral and the period of leave and the reasons for the leave.

The granting of a deferred salary leave is contingent upon the conclusion of a contract that shall include notably the dates of the period of deferral and the period of leave.

34.07 The University cannot refuse such a leave without valid reason.

In no case can an employee modify the length of the period of deferral or the period of leave during the course of the deferred salary leave.

The employee may suspend or end the deferred salary leave in accordance with the provisions of this article.

34.08 Return

Upon return from the deferred salary leave, the employee is reinstated into the position that they occupied at the commencement of the leave. If the employee's position has been abolished, the provisions of article 16 (Employment Security) apply.

34.09 Financing of the leave

During the period of contract, the employee receives the percentage of their actual remuneration as set out in the following table:

	2 yrs	3 yrs	4 yrs	5yrs
6 months	75.00%	83.33%	87.50%	90.00%
9 months		75.00%	81.25%	85.00%
12 months			75.00%	80.00%

- (a) The University shall pay to the employee the accrued interest on the amount of deferred remuneration on the following dates:

- (i) each December 31 during the period of the contract; and
 - (ii) the last day of the deferred salary leave or on the date of an event which puts an end to the contract before the last day of the deferred salary leave.
- (b) The rate of interest determined by the Treasury Department, that may be amended from time to time, is currently based on the rate established by the Royal Bank on savings accounts of less than $5,000 or more than $5,000.
 - (c) The interest paid to the employee must be considered as employment revenue, must be declared on the employee's T4 supplementary income form and is subject to the applicable taxes.
 - (d) During the period of leave, the employee may continue to participate in those benefits plans that apply to the employee, provided that the employee requests continuation of benefits at the beginning of the leave and pays the total premium.
 - (e) During each year of the contract, inasmuch as the employee is normally entitled, the employee accumulates seniority.
 - (f) For the duration of the contract, including the period of leave, vacations are remunerated on the basis of the employee's net remuneration.

34.10 The University continues its contribution to the Regime des Rentes du Québec, Employment Insurance, Quebec Health Insurance and the CSST during the period of the contract. Payment is calculated according to the employee's net remuneration.

34.11 Short Term Disability, Long Term Disability

- (a) The sickness occurs during the period of deferral and continues until the moment the leave is scheduled to occur:

In this case, the employee may choose one of the following:

- (i) The employee may continue their participation in the deferred salary leave contract and postpone the leave until they are no longer sick. The employee then receives salary continuance, in accordance with article 37 (Salary Continuance) of the collective agreement on the basis of the employee's net remuneration.
- (ii) The employee may terminate the contract and thus receive the amount of deferred remuneration. In accordance with article 37 (Salary Continuance), the salary continuance payment is based on the employee's actual remuneration.

(iii) In the event that the employee becomes eligible for long-term disability benefits, the contract is terminated and the employee thus receives the amount of deferred remuneration. Long-term disability benefits are based on the employee's actual remuneration.

(b) The sickness occurs during the period of leave:

For the purposes of application of article 37 (Salary Continuance), the sickness is deemed not to have occurred during the period of leave. However, article 37 will apply retroactively to the date of onset of disability if, at the end of the period of leave, the employee continues to be sick.

The employee is entitled, during the period of leave, to the amount of deferred remuneration according to the modalities provided for in clause 34.09.

At the end of the period of leave, if the employee continues to be sick, they will then receive salary continuance payments based on their actual remuneration.

34.12 Occupational Disease and Work Accident

When an occupational disease or work accident occurs, the provisions of article 36 (Health and Safety) of the collective agreement apply at the date of the event; the employee may then choose one of the following:

- (a) interrupt the contract until the employee's return to work; however, the contract terminates after two (2) years of interruption and, within thirty (30) days, the University must remit to the employee the amount of deferred remuneration;
- (b) put an end to the contract at the date of the event in which case, within thirty (30) days, the University shall remit to the employee the amount of deferred remuneration.

34.13 Maternity Leave twenty (20) weeks and Adoption Leave ten (10) weeks

If the maternity or adoption leave occurs before or during the taking of the leave, participation in the deferred salary leave contract is interrupted for a maximum period of twenty (20) weeks, or ten (10) weeks, as the case may be; the contract is then extended by as many weeks.

However, if the maternity or adoption leave occurs before the taking of the leave, the employee can put an end to the contract and, within thirty (30) days, the University must remit to the employee the amount of deferred remuneration.

34.14 Departure or breach of contract

In the event of an employee's departure due to retirement, resignation, etc., or in the event of a breach of contract, the deferred salary leave terminates on the date of the event. Within thirty (30) days, the University shall remit to the employee the amount of deferred remuneration.

34.15 Death of the employee

In the event of the employee's death, the University shall, in the thirty (30) days following the notification of death to the University, pay the amount of deferred remuneration to the employee's estate, subject to the University receiving the necessary clearances and other proof normally required for payment to an estate.

34.16 Change of Status

An employee whose status changes during their participation in the deferred salary leave (by going from a full-time position to a part-time position or vice versa, by going from a regular position to a sessional position or vice versa, or by going from a part-time position to a full-time position involving different hours), can choose one (1) of the following two (2) options:

- (a) terminate the contract; within thirty (30) days, the University shall remit to the employee the amount of deferred remuneration;
- (b) maintain participation in the deferred salary leave; the employee and the University will then decide on the way in which the employee's participation in the deferred salary leave will be maintained without financial prejudice to the University.

However, if the employee's position has been abolished, the provisions of article 16 (Employment Security) will apply.

35.05 An employee who is elected to public office on a municipal council, a school board, a CEGEP or University board, a public health or social services institution, or to a civil function of a similar nature, who must occasionally be absent from work for meetings or official activities of their office, will be entitled to leave without pay.

In such a case, a discussion shall happen between the employee and his supervisor, as soon as possible after the election to inform the immediate supervisor of the anticipated frequency and the possible duration of the planned absences. In addition, a written request stating the employee's name, and the nature and probable length of the absence, must be sent to the immediate supervisor, with a copy to Human Resources (Pensions and Benefits) for each one of the absences as a general rule at least five (5) working days prior to the date of the beginning of the leave.

- 36.07 An employee has the right to refuse to perform a task if the employee has reasonable grounds to believe that the performance of the task would endanger their health, safety or physical well-being, or would expose another person to a similar danger. An employee may not, however, exercise this right if their refusal to perform the task places the life, health, safety or physical well-being of another person in immediate danger or if the conditions under which the work is to be performed are normal for that type of work.

- 36.08 Any special protective equipment or other articles required by law for the protection of the employees will be provided by the University, such items shall remain the property of the University.

- 37.02 A medical certificate will not normally be required in the case of an incidental illness; however, the University reserves the right to request such a medical certificate in a particular case.
- 37.03 Sick leaves mentioned in clause 37.01 are not authorized or approved when they coincide with vacations, maternity or paternity leaves, short or long-term sick leaves or any other absence whether paid or not which is already covered by this collective agreement. However, if during an employee's vacation, there should occur a serious illness or accident requiring hospitalization, then sick leave may be substituted for vacation.

- 37.06 Notwithstanding the above, the University may assign the employee on short-term disability leave to duties compatible with their medical condition with the approval of the employee's attending physician.

- 37.07 In order to be eligible for short-term disability benefits, the employee must have completed their probationary period and be absent for more than two (2) consecutive working days. The employee must justify this absence with a detailed medical certificate from a legally qualified medical practitioner stating that the employee is unable because of sickness or accident, to perform the normal duties of their position. The first two (2) working days of any absence due to sickness or accident, other than work related accident or occupational disease, are classified and treated as Paid Incidental Illness days, in accordance with clause 37.01.

An employee who is absent from work several times during a reference year for the same medical reason, as diagnosed by the employee's attending physician, will have a maximum of five (5) incidental illness days deducted from the bank of nine (9) paid incidental illness days, as a result of the application of this clause.

In the event of any additional absences within the same reference year due to this same medical condition, as diagnosed by the employee's attending physician, such days will not be deducted from the employee's bank of nine (9) paid incidental illness days.

- 37.08 The duration of any short-term disability leave shall be as determined by a legally qualified medical practitioner. 37.12 An employee will accumulate seniority while on short-term disability leave.

37.13 All contributory and non-contributory benefits plans will be continued in respect of an employee on short-term disability leave.

The leave recommendation of the University's medical practitioner shall prevail. However, the Union may file a grievance in accordance with clause 10.02 (e) (Grievance and Disagreement Procedure).

37.15 Upon their return to work, an employee will be reinstated into the position held at the commencement of the short-term disability leave.

Such contributions shall be assumed by the University or the insurance plan as the case may be.
- 37.22 An employee who, during their long-term disability leave, returns to work on a progressive basis will receive a vacation indemnity. - 37.28 No employee is obliged to tell their immediate supervisor of the nature of their sickness, diagnosis or other information relative to their ability to work that appears on the medical certificate.
- 37.29 When an employee undergoes a medical examination at the request of the University and in the office of the medical practitioner named by the University, or undergoes a medical examination by a third medical practitioner, as stipulated in clause 37.30, the employee does so without loss of earnings (i.e. pay or salary continuance benefits).

Medical Adjudication

If a grievance concerning the subjects mentioned in (i) and (ii) is not resolved at step 2 of the Grievance and Disagreement Procedure, the Union may submit it to step 3 in accordance with clause 10.02(d) (Grievance and Disagreement Procedure). Such submission may include a request for medical adjudication. In the latter case, and upon written acceptance by the University of the medical adjudication process, within five (5) working days of receipt of the grievance at step 3, the grievance will proceed in the following way:

i) Short-term disability leave

In the event of a discrepancy between the short-term disability leave recommendation of the employee's attending physician and the University's medical practitioner, the two medical practitioners will choose a third medical practitioner who will decide the length of the leave, if applicable.

ii) Long-term disability medical evaluation

In the event of a discrepancy concerning a medical evaluation between the employee's attending physician and the University's and/or insurer's medical practitioner, the medical practitioners will choose a third medical practitioner who will decide on the medical issues.

iii) Medical conclusions

The fees and expenses incurred for the third medical practitioner will be shared equally by the parties to the collective agreement. No grievance can be filed with respect to the third medical practitioner's findings. Any employee who fails to comply with the decision of the third medical practitioner will be deemed to have resigned from the University. No grievance can be filed with respect to such resignation.

iv) Optional recourse

The University may refuse, without justification, to resolve a grievance through the medical adjudication process.

37.31

If the University does not accept the medical adjudication process in accordance with clause 37.30, the Union shall, within twenty (20) working days of the expiry of the delay provided in clause 37.30 deliver to Employee Relations a signed request for arbitration. This request shall include a copy of the grievance or disagreement. All time limits mentioned in this article are mandatory unless otherwise agreed in writing. Failure to comply with this renders the grievance or disagreement null, void and illegal.

ARTICLE 38 WORK ACCIDENTS

- 38.01 (a) In the case of a work-related accident or occupational disease covered by the "Act respecting Industrial Accidents and Occupational Diseases," the University shall pay the employee's regular salary less all regular deductions during first fifty-two (52) weeks of disability, insofar as the employee is eligible for income replacement indemnity according to the Commission de la Santé et de la sécurité du travail (CSST). During the first fifty-two (52) week period of total disability, the indemnity granted by the CSST to the employee shall be paid to the University.

CASUALS

1. The use of casuals must not have the effect of reducing the number of regular (full-time, part-time or sessional) positions or of preventing their creation.
2. Casuals may be employed as replacements required because a regular employee is on an authorized leave from their position in which case the replacement period shall not exceed the leave itself.

In case of replacement of a regular employee who has been on long-term disability, the replacement period shall not exceed three (3) years from the date of commencement of the Long-Term Disability Leave.

When the period of authorized leave exceeds six (6) months, the casual serving as a replacement may be used or continue to be used for a period of one (1) month preceding and following the leave to facilitate an overlap with the regular employee taking authorized leave.

3. Casuals may be employed temporarily during the recruitment process if required because of a vacant position.

For the purposes of this Appendix, the recruitment process is deemed to have commenced on the date of termination of the previous incumbent in cases where the termination leaves an existing position vacant or results in a modification of that position and on the date of first employment of a casual to do the work in other cases.

Vacant positions may be filled temporarily in this manner while the position remains vacant, for the first six (6) months following the commencement of the recruitment process.

After the recruitment process, during the trial or probationary period of the candidate selected, a casual may continue to be used for a further period of one (1) month to facilitate the orientation of the new incumbent.

4. Casuals may be employed to assist with temporary or cyclical peaks in workload in a given unit, under the following conditions:
 - i) When the total of such work to be done for all peaks, when taken together throughout the unit, requires the employment of casuals during more than six (6) hours in the week, such employment shall be limited to a maximum of twenty-six (26) weeks in any fifty-two (52) week period.
 - ii) During the other weeks, the employment of casuals for all peaks when taken together throughout the unit, must be limited to total period not exceeding six (6) hours in any week.

APPENDIX 5
CASUALS

5. Casuals may also be used in the above circumstances beyond the specified delays and in any circumstances, in accordance with article 1, if, in the academic year, the casual is either:
 - an undergraduate student of McGill University taking a minimum of eighteen (18) degree credits;
 - a full-time, or half-time graduate student of McGill University as currently defined in the regulations of the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research;
 - a graduating student having an active application (i.e. not refused) for admission to another degree program at McGill.

6. In all cases of contravention
 - i) The casual(s) whose cumulative employment results in a contravention of the provisions of this Appendix must be paid according to scale, retroactive to their date of first employment on the assignment where the contravention occurred.
 - ii) The University must immediately cease using the casual(s) for the duties affected, and must fill the position as if it was a new or vacant position.

7. A grievance pertaining to this Appendix will be filed in accordance with article 10 of the collective agreement.

LETTER OF AGREEMENT

Between: McGill University
(hereinafter "the University")

And: McGill University Non-Academic Certified Association
(MUNACA)

Subject: Group Plans

- a) In conformity with the terms of reference of the McGill Staff Benefits Advisory Committee (SBAC) and notwithstanding other provisions of this collective agreement, these plans may be amended from time to time but, when said amendments would have the effect of reducing the level of benefits, the following procedures must be followed, with the exception of the Pension Plan:
- i. The University will submit to the SBAC any new amendments with all relevant information related to said amendments;
 - ii. The SBAC will analyse said proposed amendments and will make its recommendations to the University within sixty (60) days of receipt of the proposed amendment;
 - iii. To be implemented by the University, any amendment that has the effect of reducing the level of benefits must receive a favourable recommendation from the members of the SBAC representing a minimum of seventy percent (70%) of the employees covered by the plans. Any recommendation that does not reach said percentage will not be forwarded to the University for consideration.
- b) Additionally, any incremental cost increase required to ensure the financial health and sustainability of the plans shall be shared between all members of the plans in the same proportion as their current or respective contribution at the time the change is being considered. However, if in order to ensure the financial health and sustainability of the plans, the University is obliged to increase its share of the premium paid, that incremental increase shall be limited to a maximum of 3% above its contribution, at the time the change is being considered, to the plans.

Notwithstanding section a) iii, if the increase required is above the University's maximum 3% incremental contribution, the SBAC must recommend to the University to make changes to the plans to either reduce benefits or increase the members' share of their incremental contributions to cover the financial shortfall if the members wish to maintain their existing level of benefits. In the event that the SBAC is unable to make a recommendation as per section iii above, the University will make the final decision on the changes.
