

Case Work Task Sheet

1. Summarize your case for the group:
Summarize the essential facts of your case.

2. Keeping in mind the concepts previously reviewed, explain why you think this is a case of racism:

Review the key concepts and decide if any of these concepts apply to your case. Do you have any personal limitations in analyzing your case? If you think this is the case, explain why you think they apply.

3. Are there any aspects which are unclear?

If there is any part of your case that doesn't make sense to you, name what is unclear. Attempt to reach an understanding with the rest of your group regarding these "unclear" areas.

4. What potential challenges exist in your case?

All cases have challenges – even the ones that look like a clear win. Identify the challenges you may face in bringing this case to a successful resolution. This can range from missing information, procedural or jurisdictional issues, lack of witnesses etc.
